

OBITUARY

Hattie Kilburn Hilton

Mrs. Robert K. Bell received a message Saturday from her niece, Mrs. Clarice King, Southgate, Calif., telling her of the death of her niece, Mrs. Hattie Kilburn Hilton of Southgate. Mrs. Hilton was born in Silver City, July 21, 1892 the eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. William Kilburn. She received her early schooling in Silver City, but after her father's untimely death, her mother moved to Los Angeles where she finished her education. Later she accepted a position as a teacher in the old Tyrone Public Schools, it was during this time that she met Mr. Marvin Hilton, master mechanic of Tyrone, and they were married. They made their home in Tyrone until the camp closed, then moved to California where Mr. Hilton passed away several years ago. Surviving are a son, Billy Bob and a daughter, Mary Carol, and their families, and one sister, Mrs. Bab Kilburn Gilmore of Santa Barbara, Calif. Burial was In the home plot in Southgate.